

My home is my sanctuary and I resent unwanted intrusions by telemarketers. I am not a fool . If I need to purchase goods or services I am capable of making that decision without being harrassed in my home. I have a firm policy of not giving to any charity that contacts me by phone. Please do not tamper with New Jersey's telemarketing law,